OSU Youth Program Compliance Check List .................................................................................. 36
INTRODUCTION

Oregon State University has a vibrant and diverse community of youth-serving programs that are dedicated to providing safe and healthy learning environments for youth (herein defined as ages 6-17). This document outlines policies, requirements and best practices to help keep youth, faculty and staff safe. Note that these policies represent university-wide standards for all youth programs; particular programs, however, may adhere to more stringent requirements (e.g., yearly criminal history checks for state childcare certification). For policy questions contact Kyle Cole (phone: 541-737-8262, email: kyle.cole@oregonstate.edu) in the Office of Precollege Programs.

I. YOUTH PROGRAM SAFETY POLICIES AND BEST PRACTICES

Risk Management

At OSU we strive to provide safe and healthy learning environments for youth. To do this, it is essential to employ risk management techniques that will reduce or mitigate as much risk as possible. A Risk Management assessment tool can be found here: http://risk.oregonstate.edu/risk-assessment-tool

The risk of accidents or abuse can be drastically reduced by following the “ACT” model of risk management:

- Avoid: avoid risky behavior, cease risky action.
- Control: prevent or reduce the severity and or frequency of adverse incidents.
- Transfer: utilize insurance, contracts, and waivers to transfer risk to another party whenever possible.

Required Policies for Working with Youth

The following required policies represent broadly accepted standards of care for youth. Deviations from these policies are not generally permitted.

1. Individuals who perform functions or duties that regularly require interaction with minors in a private setting or without direct supervision on-site must receive a criminal history check from the Department of Human Resources. A link to the form can be found in the Appendix.

2. Employees and volunteers who meet the above criteria and work with youth on an ongoing basis must have a new criminal history check every two years.

3. Faculty, staff, and volunteers who work with youth must have adequate training to perform their duties. Adequate training will vary depending on the duties of the position. For more information and examples, see Orientation and Training section.

4. The use of physical contact for disciplinary measures is NOT allowed.

5. All youth program faculty, staff and volunteers are required to report suspected child abuse. See “Responding to Suspected Child Abuse” section of this manual.
6. Registered Sex Offenders (RSOs) are NOT allowed to have contact with youth in the context of volunteering for an OSU student club or Youth Program. See “Conditions of Volunteer Service”.

7. Program leaders must submit participant data and certify policy compliance annually. The collection form is here: http://oregonstate.edu/precollege/osu-youth-program-data

Youth Program Best Practices

The following guidelines represent broadly accepted best practices for working with youth. Deviations from these best practices requires clearly documented justification and approval from the program director or department head.

1. The recommended supervision ratio for on-site programs is one staff or volunteer for every ten youth (1:10). The recommended supervision ratio for overnight or off-site events is one staff or volunteer for every eight youth (1:8). If the youth participants are younger than 3rd grade (or 8 years old), the recommended ratio is one staff or volunteer for every five youth (1:5). NOTE: these ratios may vary for specific activity camps. See the American Camp Association supervision standards for more information: http://www.acacamps.org/standards.

2. Faculty, staff, and volunteers should avoid situations where they are alone with one, unrelated youth. A “Two Deep” strategy having two or more adults supervise youth is highly recommended. Another faculty, staff or volunteer should be made aware prior to an unavoidable one-on-one event.

3. Youth should be within visual and/or hearing supervision of volunteers or staff at all times. Exceptions to visual supervision include bathroom or changing room use. Under these circumstances staff or volunteers should respect youth privacy but remain within hearing supervision by waiting nearby. Having participants wear brightly colored t-shirts displaying the program name increases visibility and eases identification in crowded areas.

4. Staff or volunteers charged with supervising a group of youth must remain in sight and/or sound supervision of that group until relieved by another faculty, staff or volunteer.

5. To avoid youth-on-youth abuse, youth should not be left alone with another unrelated youth for more than a few minutes. For example, avoid leaving youth for prolonged periods in bathrooms or changing rooms or situations where they are not under visual supervision.

6. Avoid placing youth of widely differing ages (more than 3 years) in the same group. If this is not possible, closely supervise the group for appropriate interactions.

7. Faculty, staff or volunteers who do not follow these stated policies are not allowed to work with youth. (See Appendix: Code of Conduct example)
8. Programs should have a plan for emergency evacuation, relocation and reunification of youth with their parents or guardians. A template plan can be found on the PCP resources web page: http://oregonstate.edu/precollege/support-services

Tips for Creating Safe Programs
Program policies that ensure a safe social environment reduce the chance of abuse. Staff trainings and supervision practices should create a sense of responsibility in staff, volunteers and program participants for following safe practices. Below are additional tips for creating safe environments.

1. Create a welcoming environment. Parents, family members and other staff are invited to visit programs at any time. Safety is everyone's shared responsibility.
2. Hold programs in open places that are easy to observe (through windows when indoors).
3. Observe the physical and emotional state of youth each time they participate in a program. Signs of injury or suspected child abuse must be reported. See abuse reporting requirements in this manual.
4. If the program is over-night, lodging assignments should not house a single adult with a single, unrelated youth. Ideally, adults should be housed separately from youth, but within easy supervision range.
5. The need for youth privacy should be respected, specifically when youth are changing clothes or bathing. The appropriate adult action is to turn your back, provide a visual barrier (e.g., hold up a towel) or step out of the room (but remain within hearing supervision).
6. Physical contact is a complex issue that requires staff training and discussion. Talking points should include public/private contact, gender awareness, age awareness, frequency and the "needy" youth, awareness of one's own needs, the role of horseplay, etc. Physical contact between an adults and youth should only take place in a public setting where other adults are present. Appropriate touching avoids contact with private body parts and should be in response to the needs of the child - not initiated by the adult.
7. A “buddy system” pairing 2-3 youth is useful when forming small groups that will separate from the larger group. For example, a staff member can escort 2-3 students for a restroom break.
8. Disciplinary measures never include use of physical punishment or failure to provide necessities of care, such as food, water or shelter. Nor should punishments single out an individual for group ridicule.
9. Bullying, hazing or secret initiations are never allowed. Watch for early indications and intervene early. Define appropriate behavioral expectations at the start of your program.
10. Youth are protected from inappropriate adult conversations and topics, including but not limited to adult-oriented jokes or discussion of sexual interactions. Staff that use coarse or foul language around youth can be a signal that the staff member is not concerned with social norms. In the extreme case, this is a method which a perpetrator will "cast a wide net" to elicit a response from vulnerable youth.
Appropriate Adult-Youth Boundaries

Below is a list of frequently encountered areas of concern related to appropriate adult-youth boundaries. None of these areas always indicate a problem; when done publicly and with proper supervisor approval, many would be considered well-intentioned and positive. However, when done without proper consideration and approval, they can be indicative of an adult or youth forming the beginnings of an inappropriate relationship. One goal of staff training should be to clearly define safe and respectful relationships and discuss potential areas for concern as listed below. Training should also ensure that supervisors are equipped to be on the lookout for these indicators and know when to look more closely at a situation as having potential for inappropriate boundary crossing.

1. Social media communication with youth: Twitter, Facebook, Myspace, etc. Creating group public “group pages” is preferable to allowing adult staff to privately “friend” youth.
2. Cell phone communication, including texting is a form of 1:1 interaction that can present issues.
3. Outside-of-work interaction including babysitting, providing transportation, taking a youth for a soda/treat as a reward, etc.
4. Discussing personal issues and information with youth or within earshot of youth. This includes any subject that one would normally discuss with a same-age friend: i.e. relationships, finances, family, gossip-type information, etc.
5. "Holding contracts" with youth. Holding a contract with a youth means agreeing to keep a secret with a youth, however innocuous it may seem. Example: Staff A observes Youth X taking an extra snack despite instructions that it is one snack/camper. Staff A responds by saying "It's a good thing only I saw you, Staff B would be really mad." Two things happen as a result. First, Staff A now has leverage with which to manipulate Youth X and Youth X now knows that Staff A is willing to operate outside the authority of the other staff. This is one of the most common precursors to deviant behavior by adults and youth.
6. Consistent application of authority among youth. It is human nature to relate more closely to some youth than others. However, it becomes a boundary issue when adults apply their authority inconsistently and some youth receive consideration not available to others.

Media Policy

Advances in technology are enabling new forms of social interaction that may extend beyond the appropriate use of cameras or recording devices. The following policies are meant to ensure the appropriate use of digital media:

1. Inappropriate use of cameras, imaging, cell phones or digital devices is prohibited. It is inappropriate to use any device capable of recording or transmitting visual images in showers, restrooms, changing rooms or other areas where privacy is expected by participants.
2. Participants must sign a media release form before pictures or videos can be used for reports, advertising or promotional materials. See the Appendix for liability waiver and media release forms. These forms must be used verbatim and cannot be modified by individual programs without approval by the Office of Risk Management or the Office of General Counsel.

Policies and Best Practices for Youth Program Volunteers

1. Volunteers serving OSU youth programs must complete a Conditions of Volunteer Service form annually. This form identifies the University rules and regulations as well as tort and motor vehicle liability. A link to this form can be found in the Appendix.

2. Role descriptions communicate the duties and expectations of volunteers. Every volunteer should have a role description for each different role he/she holds in the organization.

3. “Short term” volunteers (volunteering for less than 3 events per year), who will not have contact with youth outside the presence of an OSU employee or designee, are exempt from the application procedure set forth in Section II below. They are, however required to register on a “Short-Term Volunteer Agreement” form, and receive a brief (written and/or verbal) program orientation. See Appendix for form.

4. “Longer term” volunteers (volunteering for 3 or more events per year) should be screened through an application process that includes an application form, interview, criminal history check and reference support from at least two references who are not family members or roommates. See Section II below and Appendix for sample reference forms.

5. Volunteer service may be suspended or terminated at any time for any non-discriminatory reason at the discretion of the program supervisor or their designee. Dismissals shall be made in consultation with the OSU Office of General Counsel.

Youth Program Criminal History Check Process (Rev. 2.21.2013)

For a complete description of OSU’s Criminal History Check Policy and release forms, visit the Human Resources webpage at: http://oregonstate.edu/admin/hr/ercc/criminal-history-checks

Youth Program CHC forms can be found on the PCP resource webpage:
http://oregonstate.edu/precollege/support-services

The Criminal History Check Process

1) The Program supervisor develops a brief position description that includes specific duties in every “access type” that requires a Criminal History Check (CHC). Access types that require a CHC include: supervising youth or working one-on-one with youth; access to personal information; fiscal responsibilities. OHR will determine if a crime is disqualifying based on the access type of the position.
For more information, including a crosswalk of all access types with examples, see the OHR Criminal History Check Webpage http://oregonstate.edu/admin/hr//ercc/criminal-history-checks

The position description should include this language: “This position is designated as a critical or security-sensitive position; therefore, the incumbent must successfully complete a Criminal History Check and be determined to be position qualified as per OAR 576-055-0000 et seq. Incumbents are required to self-report convictions and those in Youth Programs may have additional Criminal History Checks every two (2) years.”

2) The Applicant fills out a CHC release and returns it to Ed Austin; his contact information is on the second page of the release below the signature line. The release must be completed in full including the index number, program name, supervisor contact info. Generic CHC releases are on the OHR CHC webpage above but may be customized to include specific program information. Customized youth program releases will be available on the PCP website: http://oregonstate.edu/precollege/support-services

3) Human Resources will run the CHC, determine if the applicant meets the minimum requirements, and notify the supervisor and business center. HR enters the applicant in a CHC database. CHCs are in effect until the applicant terminates, moves into a new position with different access necessitating a new CHC, or for two years if in a qualifying Youth Program.

NOTE: It is the supervisor’s responsibility to reinitiate a CHC if and when necessary. To run a new CHC, the incumbent completes a new CHC release and submits it to Ed Austin noting the YP Recheck box. 4-H extension offices track their volunteers and submit a new release when it is time to recheck.

Criminal History Check (CHC) Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Who needs to get a CHC to work or volunteer with youth?

A: All Individuals who perform functions or duties that regularly require interaction with minors in a private setting or without direct supervision on-site.

Q: Can I get help developing a position description? Does OHR have example descriptions?

A: Human Resources and/or the HRC2 in your business center can work with you to develop position descriptions and personalized Criminal History Check Release Authorizations. Contact Ed Austin (employment@oregonstate.edu) for more information

Q: If I’ve already had a CHC done outside of OSU, do I need to get another one to work or volunteer at OSU?

A: Yes, if the position requires a CHC, all criminal history checks must be conducted by the Assistant Vice President for Human Resources or his/her designee (HR), and not by outside vendors.
Q: Do I need another CHC if I’ve already had one done by OSU Human Resources?

A: Only if you take a new position with a different access type OR you work for a Youth Program in a qualifying position for two years or more (CHCs must be repeated for qualifying positions every two years).

Every applicant (regular staff, temporary worker, student worker, volunteer, intern, etc.) who goes through the CHC process is entered into the CHC database. Every incumbent’s CHC, regardless of employment type, is in effect until they terminate, accept a new position with new access, or reach the two year mark in a Youth Program and need a recheck.

If an incumbent had a CHC done by HR for one position (regardless of position type or name), that CHC may apply to a new position if the access doesn’t change and there hasn’t been a termination.

NOTE: If an applicant indicates they have received a CHC by HR in the last two years, the supervisor can request Michele Spaulding to check the database to determine if a re-check is necessary.

Q: If I volunteer or work in a CHC-qualifying position for a Youth Program, how often do I need to be rechecked?

A: Every two years. It is the responsibility of the Youth Program supervisor to keep track of and initiate rechecks for all qualifying positions.

II. SELECTING EMPLOYEES AND VOLUNTEERS TO WORK WITH YOUTH

Volunteers interested in working with youth who will perform functions or duties that regularly require interaction with minors in a private setting, or without direct supervision on-site, must complete the following application process (steps a-d) to be approved to work with youth in OSU programs:

a. Potential volunteer completes and submits an application, including three personal references. See Appendix for sample Volunteer Application.

b. The volunteer applicant authorizes OSU to conduct a criminal history check. See Appendix for current authorization form.

c. Program supervisor contacts three (3) personal references (by mail, e-mail or phone) provided by applicant (to provide diverse and subjective perspectives of the applicant’s character and trustworthiness for being responsible when working with youth). See Appendix for Mail Form and Phone Form.

d. Program staff provides program orientation for volunteer or employee role (reinforcing applicant’s personal commitment and ability for this role).
Program hiring supervisors should conduct interviews with potential long-term volunteers. This step allows professional judgment regarding an applicant’s intentions and motivation for working with youth. Sample interview questions are provided in the Appendix.

IMPORTANT: Registered Sex Offenders are not allowed to have contact with youth in the context of volunteering for an OSU student club or Youth Program. By signing the Conditions of Volunteer service form, volunteers acknowledge the following: “I am NOT a registered sex offender and I am not required to register on any state sex offender list. Misrepresentation on this point is subject to discipline through the Student Conduct and Community Standards Office, which may impose sanctions up to and including suspension or expulsion from OSU.”

Youth program employees apply through standard Human Resources procedures. When calling the potential employees personal references, the questions on the Volunteer Phone form can be valuable indicators for appropriateness for working with youth.

III. ORIENTATION AND TRAINING

A consistent orientation for all employees and volunteers, prepares them to make appropriate decisions and take appropriate actions in their role. Whether the program is on or off campus, all volunteers and staff who work with youth must have adequate training to perform their duties. The recommended minimum is at least two (2) hours of training. Below is an outline for a 2-hour orientation to be conducted in person, via video, computer modules or a combination.

An example training can be found in the Appendix section.

IV. Program Data and Policy Compliance
Compliance with OSU policies and guidelines is the responsibility of the youth program leaders of each department or unit. For example, the program leader may be a program Director or Coordinator or an individual faculty member in an academic department. Program leaders will be asked on a yearly basis to verify to the Provost that they understand their obligations and that volunteers and staff working with youth have been vetted and received adequate training.

The following records should be kept for at least two (2) years after the youth program or event:
- Volunteer and staff contact information and whether they received a background check
- Documentation of volunteer and staff training (training agenda and volunteer-signed code of conduct are best)
- Accident and incident log for the program or event. It is a good practice to record minor accidents even if a formal accident report is not filed with the Office of Risk Management.

Youth Program Data Collection and Compliance Certification
OSU Youth Programs are required to submit program data and certify compliance with policies and guidelines annually. The data submission form can be found here:
http://oregonstate.edu/precollege/osu-youth-program-data

V. Responding to Suspected Child Abuse

As of January 1st, 2013 all Oregon State University employees became mandatory reporters of child abuse. In addition, it is the policy of Oregon State University that all volunteers working with youth act in accordance with expectations for mandatory reporters. This includes expectations that they report suspected abuse, or cause a report of such abuse to be made, to law enforcement officials immediately upon witnessing or being notified of suspected abuse.

While screening procedures for employees and volunteers improve safety, timely and diligent reporting of suspected abuse is critical for ensuring safe environments. Trust your instincts; if you see suspected evidence of abuse, report it immediately to your supervisor or Department of Human Services (DHS) Child Welfare child abuse hotline: 541-757-5019.

The Oregon State University Human Resources offers online training for recognizing and reporting abuse. These resources can be found here: http://hr.oregonstate.edu/policy/child-abuse

Abuse Reporting Procedure

A. Child Abuse – without sexual assault/harassment element
   - Required reporting to DHS Child Welfare or local law enforcement
   - Required reporting to Human Resources and Supervisor if abuse is in connection with OSU faculty, staff, property or program.
   - If there is imminent threat, required direct reporting to law enforcement (OSU Oregon State Police (OSP) unit and Department of Public Safety (DPS) if in Corvallis; if not in Corvallis, local law enforcement and DPS)
   - Required reporting from Supervisor to DPS for Clery Acts statistic gathering and annual reporting. For a description of Clery Act crimes see: http://hr.oregonstate.edu/clery

B. Child Abuse – with sexual assault/harassment element
   - Required reporting to DHS Child Welfare or local law enforcement
   - Required reporting to Human Resources and Supervisor if abuse is in connection with OSU faculty, staff, property or program
   - Required consultation with the Office of Equity and Inclusion (OEI)
   - If there is imminent threat, required direct reporting to law enforcement (OSU OSP unit and DPS if in Corvallis; if not in Corvallis, local law enforcement and DPS)

C. Other Crimes
   - If imminent threat, required direct reporting to law enforcement (OSU OSP unit and DPS if in Corvallis; if not in Corvallis, local law enforcement and DPS)
   - Required reporting to Supervisor
   - If Clery Act reportable crime, reporting to DPS for Clery Act statistic gathering and annual reporting. For a description of Clery Act crimes see: http://hr.oregonstate.edu/clery
When responding to a youth who discloses possible sexual abuse or maltreatment a report must be filed with the Office of Equity and Inclusion, see Appendix for “Employee Guidance for Responding to Disclosures of Sexual Violence or Harassment.” For more info: http://oregonstate.edu/oei/shp.

For information and training on mandatory reporting, see the Office of Human Resources webpage: http://oregonstate.edu/admin/hr/policy/child-abuse

INTERNAL REPORTING OF INCIDENTS
To ensure an effective university-wide response, the team of people below should be notified as soon as possible when a significant accident has occurred or an allegation of abuse has been made. The program Leader or Supervisor should call or email the response team immediately after the initial report is made to DHS. As much information as possible should be given, including the names of the people involved, what occurred, the location and time. The university response team will strive to keep the initial reporter’s identity confidential to the full extent allowable by law.
SUPPORTING VICTIMS OF ABUSE
Connecting the victims of abuse with proper support services is an important goal of OSU. When an allegation of abuse has been made, refer the alleged victim and his/her family to the District Attorney's Crime Victim Assistance Office (www.doj.state.or.us/victims/index.shtml) in the county the allegations are reported to have occurred. The Crime Victim's Assistance Office can provide court advocacy, judicial system information and orientation. In addition, the Crime Victim's Office can provide a Crime Victim's Compensation application which may provide for long-term counseling to address the impact of the crime on the youth.

For informational brochures contact the Benton County District Attorney’s Crime Victim Assistance Office: Benton County District Attorney's Office, 120 NW 4th St., Corvallis, OR 97330 • 541-766-6815

Instances involving sexual abuse or misconduct must be reported to the Office of Equity and Inclusion (web: http://oregonstate.edu/oei/, phone: 541-737-3556) in accordance with Title IX obligations. The OEI will provide survivors of sexual abuse with referrals to support services including the Center Against Rape and Domestic Violence (CARDV), OSU Counseling and Psychological Services, Student Health Services and The Employee Assistance Program.

VI. DEFINITIONS

Youth Program is defined as activities and events specifically directed to children 17 years of age or younger. Youth Programs include activities and events directed towards achieving goals of youth development, academic enrichment, recreation, or enrollment in postsecondary education. Such activities and events may be conducted on- or off-campus by University faculty, staff and approved volunteers.

Child Abuse - any assault, physical or mental injury (other than accident), rape, incest, sexual abuse, exploitation, negligent treatment, maltreatment, failure to provide adequately for needs, threatened harm or subjecting child to risk of harm to the child’s welfare (for a full definition see ORS 419B.005: http://www.leg.state.or.us/ors/419b.html).
Child sexual abuse involves any sexual activity with a child where consent is not or cannot be given. This includes sexual contact that is accomplished by force or threat of force, regardless of the age of the participants, and all sexual contact between an adult and a child, regardless of whether there is deception or the child understands the sexual nature of the activity. Sexual contact between an older and a younger child also can be abusive if there is a significant disparity in age, development, or size, rendering the younger child incapable of giving informed consent. The sexually abusive acts may include sexual penetration, sexual touching, or non-contact sexual acts such as exposure or voyeurism.”

Child and Youth - in this document the terms “child” and “youth” are used interchangeably and are defined broadly to include minors under the age of 18.

VII. FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is a “Volunteer”?
A volunteer is a person that:
- OSU appoints in writing to perform official OSU business; and
- Receives no remuneration for his/her services to OSU; and
- OSU receives the primary benefit from the work performed by the volunteer; and
- Works at OSU’s request or consent under OSU’s direction and control.

What protection does OSU afford a volunteer?
ORS 30.285(1) says: “A public body will defend, save harmless and indemnify any of its officers, employees and agents... arising out of an alleged act or omission occurring in the performance of duty.”

OSU volunteers are considered agents of OSU so long as:
- There is a clearly written position description for the volunteer; and
- The volunteers are trained to operate within their assigned duties.

OSU would not consider volunteers agents of OSU under the following circumstances:
- The volunteer is serving only his or her own interest.
- The volunteer is only serving the interest of another organization.
- The volunteer is clearly operating outside the scope of his or her duties.

Volunteers and Motor Vehicle Liability
If a volunteer uses a personally owned vehicle in the course of their duties, they are required to have automobile liability insurance to provide primary coverage for any accidents involving that vehicle. State provided automobile liability coverage will apply on a limited basis only after primary coverage limits have been exhausted. If driving duties are part of the volunteers written position description, he or she may use an OSU motor pool vehicle. Motor pool vehicles are covered by the State of Oregon Insurance Fund.
Volunteers and Worker’s Compensation Insurance

Generally, worker’s compensation insurance is not available for volunteers. If the volunteer is an official volunteer and has signed the Conditions of Volunteer Service form, there is some medical coverage available. This coverage is limited to only injuries due to an accident while performing the volunteer duties.

Volunteers and Reporting an Accident

Volunteers must report all accidents to their supervisor immediately.

Oregon State University Conditions of Volunteer Service

This form must be signed by all volunteers in order for them to be recognized as agents of OSU. This recognition provides the protections noted above.

What is “Special Event Insurance”?

Special Event Insurance covers accident medical expense benefits to persons who are generally not affiliated with the University but participate in University-sponsored short-term programs/events/activities. Example Youth Program Volunteer and Staff Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct is an example that Hatfield Marine Science Center (HMSC) uses to state expected professional relationships between staff and children. It includes staff/staff interactions as well as staff/children interactions. The care and safety of other people’s children is our number one priority. Your safety as staff, volunteers and program participants is of equal importance to us. Your signature on this document is acknowledgment that you understand the contents and are in complete agreement.

1. At no time during a program may any staff, volunteer or program participant be alone with a single child where they cannot be observed by others. As staff supervise children, they should space themselves in a way that other staff can see them. Do not isolate a single child for discussion or discipline unless you are clearly visible in a public area.
2. Staff must never leave a child alone and unsupervised.
3. Bathroom supervision of children must always occur with another staff member or group chaperone within sight or hearing distance. Do not enter these areas when in use by a child of the opposite sex except when summoned in an emergency. Do not enter these areas when in use by a single child of any sex without others present.
4. Staff must not abuse children including:
   - Physical abuse- to strike, spank, shake, slap
   - Verbal abuse- to humiliate, intimidate, threaten
   - Sexual abuse- to inappropriately touch or speak
   - Mental abuse- to shame, withhold kindness, be cruel
   - Neglect- to withhold food, water, basic care such as medical or bathroom needs
5. Staff will respect a child’s right not to be touched in ways that make them feel uncomfortable. Children are not to be touched between their waist and knees, front and back and the chest for a girl.
6. Staff should use positive techniques of behavior management, including redirection, positive reinforcement, and encouragement. Physical restraint is used only when necessary to protect the child or other children from harm, and must be documented with your supervisor and director.
7. Staff will respond to children, other staff and parents with respect and consideration and treat all children equally regardless of gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, economic background, or any type of physical or mental ability.
8. Staff members will refrain from intimate displays of affection towards other staff in the presence of children, parents, and staff.
9. Staff must appear clean, neat, and appropriately attired at all times. So that staff may be distinguished from guests, staff are required to wear staff shirts, vests, or their name badge while working.
10. Using, possessing, or being under the influence of alcohol, or illegal drugs during working hours is prohibited. The use of prescription drugs that may impair your judgment during working hours is also prohibited; see your supervisor so that your shift may be covered if you require them.

11. Smoking or use of tobacco in the presence of children or participants is prohibited.

12. Profanity, inappropriate jokes, and sharing intimate details of your personal life in the presence of children, or participants are prohibited. Doing such with other staff is unprofessional and always is at risk of being overheard.

13. Staff members must be free of contagious conditions that may adversely affect any child’s physical or mental health and must not act in any way that adversely affects a child’s physical or mental health. See your supervisor if you are too sick or stressed to work. And, please contact the Office of Equity and Inclusion if you have a physical or mental disability and believe you need reasonable accommodation to safely and effectively perform your duties.

14. Staff members will portray a positive role model for youth by maintaining an attitude of respect, loyalty, patience, courtesy, tact, and maturity.

15. Staff members may not be alone with children they meet in OSU programming outside of OSU work. This includes babysitting, tutoring, sleepovers, inviting children to your home or taking them places. Any exceptions require a written explanation before the fact and are subject to the supervisor’s knowledge and approval. Parents or guardians requesting your services directly should be referred to your supervisor.

16. Giving children personal contact information, including, but not limited to social networking websites, personal e-mail or home addresses and phone numbers is prohibited, unless exempted in writing by your supervisor.

17. Posting photos or info about children without parent or guardian permission is prohibited.

18. Staff members must not transport children in their personal vehicle in their job duties.

19. Under no circumstances should staff release day camp children to anyone other than the authorized parent, guardian, or other adult as documented by the parent or guardian on file.

20. Staff members are required to immediately report any instances of child abuse or neglect, whether at home, or during OSU programming to their supervisor. Suspicion or concerns about the possibility of abuse should also be reported to your supervisor. Your supervisor will make the call to the local Youth and Family Services.

21. In the event that a child discloses that they have been abused, listen to them but under no circumstances can you tell them that you will not disclose the information that they gave you. Ask no questions of any kind and recite the following four statements:
   - Thank you for telling me
   - I believe you
   - You have done nothing wrong
   - I will get help for you (not I will help you)

Questions for Screening and Selecting Employees and Volunteers

The following questions may be used in a written application or personal interview. A single answer should not determine whether an applicant is selected or rejected. Along with other forms of information, answers to these questions can help you build a more complete picture of an applicant.

• What type of supervisory situation do you prefer?
  If applicants are very independent, they may not fit in an organization whose policies and procedures require close supervision.

• What age/sex of youth do you want to work with? How would you feel about working with a different age/sex?
  If an applicant seems fixated on one age/sex, be wary. However, it may be that the applicant has experience or is gifted with working with certain age groups. Asking follow-up questions about why an applicant has a strong preference can help you determine if there is cause for concern.

• Is there anyone who might suggest that you should not work with youth? Why or why not?

• Why do you want the job?

• What would you do in a particular situation?
  Set up scenarios that involve potential concerns, boundary issues, or youth protection policies and interactions to gauge the applicant’s response. Be concerned if applicants disregard the organization’s policies and procedures or handle a situation poorly.

• What makes you a good candidate for working with youth? What would your friends or colleagues say about how you interact with youth?

• What other hobbies or activities do you enjoy?
  Determine if applicants have mature, adult relationships—not just relationships with youth.
As a volunteer working at Oregon State University (OSU), you need to understand the extent to which you are covered by insurance for liability and personal injury or illness. Please read the following carefully and sign below.

TORT LIABILITY
OSU will indemnify and defend you against civil actions for injuries or damage to the person or property of others, subject to the following general conditions:

1. You are working on an OSU task assigned by an authorized OSU supervisor;
2. You limit your actions to the duties assigned (defined in the assigned duties section below); and
3. You perform your assigned duties in good faith, and do not act in a manner that is reckless or with the intent to unlawfully inflict harm to others.

The conditions and limits of this protection are stated in the Oregon Tort Claims Act, ORS 30.260 – 30.300.

VOLUNTEER INJURY COVERAGE (VIC)
Worker’s compensation coverage is not provided. However, OSU has an injury protection plan to cover injuries of authorized volunteers in excess of the volunteers’ own insurance coverage (i.e., personal medical insurance). It is limited to injuries resulting from the volunteer acting within the course and scope of his/her assigned duties.

REPORTING RESPONSIBILITY
Any time you are involved in any accident or injury to person or property while performing assigned duties, you MUST inform your immediate supervisor as soon as possible.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY
As an authorized OSU volunteer, I understand that OSU will provide limited medical and accidental death, dismemberment and disability coverage for me in the event I suffer injury due to an accident while performing authorized volunteer duties. In exchange for the coverage, I, for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, release and forever discharge OSU from any and all demands or claims for damage or injury, from any cause of suit or action, known or unknown, that I may have against OSU or its officers, agents or employees, and from all liability under the Oregon Tort Claims Act, ORS 30.260 – 30.300, for any and all harm or damage to my health in any matter resulting from or arising out of my volunteer activities. This release does not extend to or waive any rights I may have under the Oregon Tort Claims Act, ORS 30.260 – 30.300 to defense and indemnification from any demand, claim, suit or action brought against me, or liability I may be subject to, or arising out of my authorized volunteer activities.

Note: This form may only be used if ALL volunteers are performing the same volunteer activities identified in the “Job Description”. Minors must have parental consent and must use the individual form.
I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE ABOVE CONDITIONS OF VOLUNTEER SERVICE AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY. I CERTIFY THAT ANY PERSONALLY OWNED VEHICLE USED IN THE COURSE OF MY VOLUNTEER DUTIES ARE INSURED IN ACCORDANCE WITH OREGON INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS. I UNDERSTAND THAT IN ORDER TO RECEIVE THE PROTECTIONS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, THE FOLLOWING MUST BE FILLED IN COMPLETELY AND APPROVED BY AN AUTHORIZED OSU REPRESENTATIVE.

Youth Safety “Culture of Responsibility” (CoR) Principles
Rev 5.8.2013

Oregon State University Youth Programs are dedicated to offering physically, psychologically and emotionally safe environments for all youth. Ensuring comprehensive safety requires more than simply following a list of policies and precautions; we must adopt a shared set of values and practices defining a “culture of responsibility” (CoR) for youth safety.

CoR Principles

- Sharing: All community members (program leaders, staff, volunteers and youth participants) share responsibility for assuring safety at all times.
  - Safety is part of daily conversation in designing, delivering, and enhancing programs.
  - CoR safety principles (Sharing, Understanding, Acting) are communicated as an integral aspect of each program.

- Understanding: All community members understand the expectations, responsibilities and opportunities to create a safe environment.
  - It is each member’s responsibility to address unsafe practices and procedures.
  - Members understand that safety is situational. Ongoing training allows the adaptability necessary to be prepared, attentive and responsive.

- Acting: All community members act to resolve safety concerns in a timely fashion and follow mandatory reporting requirements.
  - Members practice open, honest communication and are aware of effective reporting pathways to address safety concerns without repercussions.
  - Community members are expected to hold each other to high standards of practice and engage in challenging conversations to elevate program safety.

Integrating CoR Principles into our programs

- Leaders, staff and volunteers foster open communication and hold each other to high standards. Hierarchical barriers to communication are broken down.
- Proactively design collective responsibility, high standards and best practices into each youth program.
- Our community offers professional development and leadership training to enable the design and delivery of safe programs.
Example Precollege Programs Short Staff Safety Training

Oregon State University Youth Programs are dedicated to offering physically, psychologically and emotionally safe environments for all youth. Ensuring comprehensive safety requires more than simply following a list of policies and precautions; we must adopt a shared set of values and practices defining a “culture of responsibility” (CoR) for youth safety.

NOTE: This is an abbreviated training worksheet. For full details, please see the OSU Youth Program Policies and Guidelines manual here: http://oregonstate.edu/precollege/support-services

Culture of Responsibility (CoR) Principles

• Sharing: All program members (program leaders, staff, volunteers and youth participants) share responsibility for assuring safety at all times.
  - Safety is part of daily conversation in designing, delivering, and enhancing programs.
  - CoR safety principles (Sharing, Understanding, Acting) are communicated as an integral aspect of each program.

• Understanding: All program members understand their expectations, responsibilities and opportunities to create a safe environment.
  - It is each member’s responsibility to address unsafe practices and procedures.
  - Members understand that safety is situational. Ongoing training allows the adaptability necessary to be prepared, attentive and responsive.

• Acting: All program members act to resolve safety concerns in a timely fashion.
  - Members practice open, honest communication and are aware of reporting pathways to address safety concerns without repercussions.
  - Program members hold each other to high standards of practice and engage in challenging conversations to elevate program safety.

Supervision Guidelines

• The recommended supervision ratio for on-site programs is one staff or volunteer for every ten youth (1:10). If the youth participants are younger than 3rd grade (or 8 years old), the recommended ratio is one staff or volunteer for every five youth (1:5).

• Faculty, staff, and volunteers should avoid situations where they are alone with one, unrelated youth. Another faculty, staff and/or volunteer should be made aware prior to an unavoidable one-on-one event. A “Two Deep” policy where two or more adults are present with youth at all times is highly recommended.

• Youth should be within visual and/or hearing supervision of volunteers or staff at all times. Exceptions to visual supervision include bathroom or changing room use. Under these circumstances staff or volunteers should respect youth privacy but remain within hearing supervision by waiting nearby. Send youth to bathroom in groups of 3-5 to reduce risk.

• To avoid youth-youth abuse, youth should not be left alone with another unrelated youth for more than a few minutes. For example, avoid prolonged periods in bathrooms or changing rooms where youth are not under visual supervision. Groups of 3-5 youth are safer than 2.
Appropriate Behavior and Boundaries

- Share your enthusiasm! This is your chance to inspire future scientists and engineers—make the most of your time with them.
- Model respectful behavior for the participants, other staff and volunteers. Avoid inappropriate adult conversations and topics, including adult-oriented jokes or discussion of sexual interactions.
- Disciplinary measures never include use of physical punishment or failure to provide necessities of care, such as food, water or shelter. Nor should punishments single out an individual for group ridicule.
- Observe the physical and emotional state of youth each time they participate in a program. Signs of injury or suspected child abuse must be reported (see section below).
- Bullying, hazing or secret initiations are never allowed. Maintain adult-youth boundaries. Staff should ensure that programs are psychologically and emotionally safe for everyone, in addition to physically safe.

“Gray Area” Boundaries
Below is a list of frequently encountered areas of concern related to appropriate boundaries. None of these areas is always a definite indication of a problem. In fact, when done publicly and with proper supervisor approval, many would be considered well-intentioned and positive. However, when done without proper consideration and approval, they can be indicative of an adult or youth forming the beginnings of an inappropriate relationship.

- Social media communication with youth: Twitter, Facebook, Myspace, etc.
- Cell phone communication, including texting.
- Discussing personal issues and information with youth or within earshot of youth. This includes any subject that one would normally discuss with a same-age friend: i.e. relationships, finances, family, gossip-type information, etc.
- "Holding contracts" with youth. Holding a contract with a youth means agreeing to keep a secret with a youth, however innocuous it may seem. Example: Staff A observes Youth X taking an extra snack despite instructions that it is one snack/camper. Staff A responds by saying "It's a good thing only I saw you, Staff B would be really mad." Two things happen as a result. First, Staff A now has leverage with which to manipulate Youth X and Youth X now knows that Staff A is willing to operate outside the authority of the other staff. This is one of the most common precursors to deviant behavior by adults and youth.
- Physical contact. This issue has a great deal of complexity and requires some training. Training points include public/private contact, gender awareness, age awareness, frequency and the "needy" youth, awareness of one's own needs, the role of horseplay, etc.
- Consistent application of authority among youth. It is human nature to relate more closely to some youth than others. However, it becomes a boundary issue when adults apply their authority inconsistently and some youth receive consideration not available to others.
Media Policy

Advances in technology are enabling new forms of social interaction that may extend beyond the appropriate use of cameras or recording devices. The following policies are meant to ensure the appropriate use of digital media:

- Inappropriate use of cameras, imaging, cell phones or digital devices is prohibited. It is inappropriate to use any device capable of recording or transmitting visual images in showers, restrooms, changing rooms or other areas where privacy is expected by participants.

Reporting Suspected Child Abuse

All OSU Youth Program staff, volunteers and contractors are mandatory reporters of child abuse. This means we are required to report suspected abuse to appropriate agencies immediately upon witnessing or being notified of suspected abuse. For information and training on mandatory reporting, see the Office of Human Resources webpage: http://oregonstate.edu/admin/hr/policy/child-abuse

As part of our CoR Principles, timely and diligent reporting of suspected abuse is critical for ensuring safe environments. Trust your instincts; if you see suspected evidence of abuse, report it immediately to your supervisor (Amas Aduviri) and the Department of Human Services (DHS) Child Welfare child abuse hotline: 541-757-5019.

Reporting Resources and Responsibilities

Youth Program Scenarios: What would you do in these situations?
1) One of your students is monopolizing your attention and is clearly developing a crush on you.

2) One of your students is withdrawn and not participating in the activities.

3) You arrive at an activity and two of your students are missing.

4) A student smashes their finger in a door while fooling around.

5) One of your students left her backpack at the last activity and wants to go back and get it.

6) The teacher chaperone for your group does not participate in activities.

7) One of your students constantly wants hugs.

8) One of your students is using foul language and misbehaving and won’t stop when you ask them to.
Example volunteer training for low-risk events (Rev 5-26-15)

[EVENT NAME AND DATE]
Please read the following policies and procedures, then sign and return the form to [supervisor name].

1) Share your enthusiasm! This is your chance to engage future scientists and engineers.

2) Model respectful behavior for the participants and other volunteers. If a participant has a behavior issue, notify their teacher/chaperone for disciplinary action.

3) In case of accident or emergency:
   - If there is a serious injury or imminent threat, call 911 immediately.
   - Notify Margie Haak or your station supervisor and they will make an accident report.

4) Try to avoid being alone with a participant. If there is an emergency, ask a teacher/chaperone to attend to the child with you while another volunteer notifies Margie Haak or another supervisor immediately.
